Appendix 1.2

[Annual accounts, directors' report and auditor's report for AKSO for the last three accounting years, as well as the half-year report for 2020 in accordance with Securities Trading Act Section 5-6]

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS' MEETING IN AKER SOLUTIONS ASA ("AKSO")

REPORT ON THE MERGER BETWEEN KVÆRNER ASA ("KVAERNER") AND AKSO

1. THE MERGER WITH KVAERNER

The present report is prepared by the Board of Directors of AKSO pursuant to Section 13-9 of the Public Limited Companies Act. The report is prepared in connection with the merger of AKSO and Kvaerner as proposed in the merger plan dated 17 July 2020 (the "Merger").

The merger is implemented in accordance with principle of continuity. Upon completion the Merger the assets, rights and obligations of Kvaerner will in their entirety be transferred to AKSO. Kvaerner will be dissolved upon completion of the Merger.

2. RATIONALE FOR THE MERGER

The rationale of the Merger is to establish a leading supply company both national and international within current business areas as well as new business areas. The Board of Directors believes this goal can be achieved through the Merger for several reasons.

The new AKSO is believed to get strong market position due to the complementary nature of the businesses of AKSO and Kvaerner and the ability to offer a wide range of complete package solutions to the petroleum and energy industry. In today's market the demand for complete package solutions is high. By merging the businesses the new AKSO will be able to supply this demand, inter alia by offering to undertake a width of contracts from engineering, and project management (EPMA) to turnkey (EPCI) for projects - from the initial projecting phase, to subsequent operations and maintenance. By increasing the amount of package solutions offered it will also be easier for the company to conduct effective project execution, cut lead time and total expenses.

Further the Merger will strengthen the financial position of the company, both by an increased turnover and profit and through the synergies being achieved through the Merger. Financial solidness is considered especially beneficial in today's challenging market situation. The Merger will establish a company which is well positioned to meet future economical down-turns.

3. DETERMINATION OF THE MERGER CONSIDERATION

As merger consideration the shareholders of Kvaerner receive shares in AKSO. The exchange-ratio between shares in Kvaerner and the consideration shares in AKSO is based on a volume weighted average price for the shares in AKSO and Kvaerner on Oslo Stock Exchange during a period of 30 days (incl. both trading days and non-trading days) commencing two trading days after the AKSO share trades ex the dividend specified in item 11. One share in Kvaerner shall still always give right to at least 0.7629 shares and maximum 1.1404 shares in AKSO, which in total provides the shareholders in Kvaerner with an ownership interest in the range between 43 % to 53 % in the combined company. The exact exchange-ratio will be published as soon as it is ready.

Fractions of shares will not be allotted. For each shareholder the shares will be rounded down to each whole number. Excess shares, which as a result of this round down will not be allotted, will be issued to and sold by Skandinaviska Enskilda Banken AB (publ) (Oslo Branch). The sales proceeds will be given to AKSO, which is free to give the sales proceeds further to charity.

Only shareholders of Kvaerner that are non-U.S. persons as defined in regulation S of the U.S. Securities Act or “accredited investors” as defined in Regulation D of the U.S. Securities Act (“Eligible Shareholder”) are eligible to receive shares in AKSO as merger consideration. Any shareholder in Kvaerner who is not an Eligible Shareholder will receive a cash settlement following a sale of such shares as they would otherwise be entitled to receive. Such shareholders will also receive cash for fractions of shares.

COVID 19 has caused great unbalance in the supply and demand for oil and gas which in turn has resulted in oil companies world over cutting investments to protect own cash flow. This has in turn had a significant impact on the valuation of AKSO and Kvaerner. Because of i.a. the measures carried out by AKSO and Kvaerner to reduce costs, and the packages of measures adopted by the Norwegian authorities to maintain activity in the petroleum industry, the share prices have stabilized. AKSO and Kvaerner is therefore of the opinion that a volume-weighted average price during a period of 30 days provides a good basis to determine the exchange-ratio.

The Board of Directors of AKSO has commissioned a valuation report from Skandinaviska Enskilda Banken AB (publ) (Oslo Branch), which has served as the basis for the above mentioned valuation method. The valuation report supports that a volume weighted average price per share in the mentioned period will provide a correct picture of the value of the respective shares and thus provide the shareholders in AKSO a fair consideration. The valuation of AKSO and Kvaerner is based on a total assessment of expected future cash flow of the companies under different assumptions and scenarios, including a calibration against the valuation of similar companies which are traded on the stock exchange and a valuation of the companies’ historical stock exchange values. No special difficulties have been encountered in determining the consideration.

4. IMPLICATIONS FOR THE EMPLOYEES

AKSO has no employees. All workers are employed in underlying companies of the AKSO group. The Merger does not have any immediate consequences for these employees. Despite this, information has been furnished to, and discussions have been held with, the employee representatives and other union representatives in the AKSO group in connection with the merger.

To the General Meeting of Aker Solutions ASA

Statement on the merger plan

At the Board of Directors of Aker Solutions ASA's request, we as independent experts, issue this statement regarding the merger plan dated 17 July 2020 between Aker Solutions ASA ("Aker Solutions") and Kværner ASA ("Kværner") in compliance with the Public Limited Liability Companies Act Section 13-10. In the merger Aker Solutions takes over all assets and liabilities of Kværner against consideration in shares in Aker Solutions. The shareholders of Kværner receive as consideration of a number of shares, to be determined based on the described method, in Aker Solutions for each share in Kværner. One share in Kværner shall give right to at least 0.7629 shares and a maximum of 1.1404 shares in Aker Solutions, which will provide the shareholders in Kværner with an ownership interest in the combined company of between 43 % and 53 %. The exact exchange-ratio will be published as soon as it is ready.

The Board's responsibility for the statement

The Board of Directors of each company is responsible for the information and the valuations which form the basis for the statement and the valuations performed which determined the consideration.

The independent experts' responsibility

Our responsibility is to prepare a statement on the merger plan and express an opinion on the determination of the consideration.

The statement consists of three parts. The first part is a presentation of information in compliance with the requirements in the Public Limited Liability Companies Act section 13-10 second subsection and section 2-6 first subsection No 1-4. The second part explains the methods used for determination of the consideration to shareholders in the transferring company. The third part is our opinion regarding the consideration.

Part 1: Information about the contribution

The assets and liabilities that Aker Solutions shall take over in the merger include the activities of Kværner and include all assets, rights and liabilities of Kværner, consisting primarily of shares in Kværner Holding AS and loans to and from subsidiaries. Annual financial statements, Board of Directors' reports and Auditor's reports for the last three years and a half year report for 2020 are included as appendices.

Part 2: Method(s) for determination of the consideration

The agreement between Aker Solutions and Kværner has been negotiated between independent parties. The negotiation will result in an agreed exchange ratio of Aker Solutions shares for each share in Kværner.

The consideration and exchange ratio between the two listed entities Aker Solutions and Kværner will be market based and measured by the volume weighted average price ("VWAP") of the shares for the 30 consecutive days (incl. both trading days and non-trading days), commencing two trading days after the Aker Solutions share trades ex the dividend as specified in item 4 and 11 in the merger plan.

The Boards of each party have obtained independent fairness opinions which assess the appropriateness of the valuation method to arrive at the consideration and exchange ratio. To validate the consideration and exchange ratio the fairness opinions have assessed the valuations by, inter alia, comparison against future discounted cash flow estimates, trading multiples of comparable entities, relevant precedent transactions and the historic market value of the entities to assess the reasonableness of the relative enterprise values of the parties as per the VWAP ratio calculation.

In determining the consideration, no specific difficulties have been encountered, however the uncertainties resulting from the impacts of COVID-19 and the significant drop in oil-price in 2020 have been considered and assessed.

Part 3: The independent expert's opinion

We have performed our procedures and issue our opinion in accordance with the Norwegian auditing standard NSAE 3802 "The auditor's assurance reports and statements required by Norwegian Company legislation¹" issued by the Norwegian Institute of Public Accountants. The standard requires that we plan and perform procedures to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the assets and liabilities Aker Solutions shall take over have a value that is at least equivalent to the agreed consideration, and to enable us to express an opinion on the consideration to the shareholders of Kværner. Our procedures include an assessment of the valuation method to be used and the assumptions that will form the basis for the valuation.

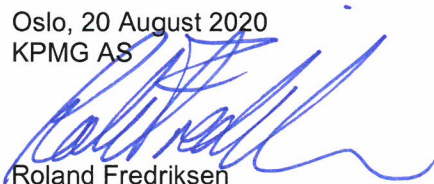

We believe that the evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, based on the method described, the assets Aker Solutions shall take over in the merger will have a value that is at least equivalent to the agreed consideration in Aker Solutions shares. In our opinion the basis for the consideration to the shareholders of Kværner of the number of shares, to be determined based on the described method, in Aker Solutions for each share in Kværner, is reasonable and objective.

The opinion will be updated on 21 September 2020 with the final exchange ratio of the consideration to the shareholders of Kværner of the number of shares in Aker Solutions for each share in Kværner.

[Annual accounts, directors' report and auditor's report for Kvaerner for the last three accounting years, as well as the half-year report for 2020 in accordance with Securities Trading Act Section 5-6]

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS' MEETING IN KVAERNER ASA ("KVAERNER")

REPORT ON THE MERGER BETWEEN KVAERNER AND AKER SOLUTIONS ASA ("AKSO")

1. THE MERGER WITH AKSO

The present report is prepared by the Board of Directors of Kvaerner pursuant to Section 13-9 of the Public Limited Companies Act. The report is prepared in connection with the merger of Kvaerner and AKSO as proposed in the merger plan dated 17 July 2020 (the "Merger")

Upon completion the Merger the assets, rights and obligations of Kvaerner will in their entirety be transferred to AKSO. Kvaerner will be dissolved upon completion of the Merger.

2. RATIONALE FOR THE MERGER

The rationale of the Merger is to establish a leading supply company both national and international within current business areas as well as new business areas. The Board of Directors believes this goal can be achieved through the Merger for several reasons.

The new AKSO is believed to get strong market position due to the complementary nature of the businesses of AKSO and Kvaerner and the ability to offer a wide range of complete package solutions to the petroleum and energy industry. In today's market the demand for complete package solutions is high. By merging the businesses the new AKSO will be able to supply this demand, inter alia by offering to undertake a width of contracts from engineering, and project management (EPMA) to turnkey (EPCI) for projects - from the initial projecting phase, to subsequent operations and maintenance. By increasing the amount of package solutions offered it will also be easier for the company to conduct effective project execution, cut lead time and total expenses.

Further the Merger will strengthen the financial position of the company both by an increased turnover and profit and through the synergies being achieved through the Merger. Financial solidness is considered especially beneficial in today's challenging market situation. The Merger will establish a company which is well positioned to meet future economical down-turns.

3. DETERMINATION OF THE MERGER CONSIDERATION

As merger consideration the shareholders of Kvaerner receive shares in AKSO. The exchange-ratio between shares in Kvaerner and the consideration shares in AKSO is based on a volume weighted average price for the shares in AKSO and Kvaerner on Oslo Stock Exchange during a period of 30 days (incl. both trading days and non-trading days) commencing two trading days after the AKSO share trades ex the dividend specified in item 11. One share in Kvaerner shall still always give right to at least 0.7629 shares and maximum 1.1404 shares in AKSO, which in total provides the shareholders in Kvaerner with an ownership interest in the range between 43 % to 53 % in the combined company. The exact exchange-ratio will be published as soon as it is ready.

Fractions of shares will not be allotted. For each shareholder the shares will be rounded down to each whole number. Excess shares, which as a result of this round down will not be allotted, will be issued to and sold by Skandinaviska Enskilda Banken AB (publ) (Oslo Branch). The sales proceeds will be given to AKSO, which is free to give the sales proceeds further to charity.

Only shareholders of Kvaerner that are non-U.S. persons as defined in regulation S of the U.S. Securities Act or “accredited investors” as defined in Regulation D of the U.S. Securities Act (“Eligible Shareholder”) are eligible to receive shares in AKSO as merger consideration. Any shareholder in Kvaerner who is not an Eligible Shareholder will receive a cash settlement following a sale of such shares as they would otherwise be entitled to receive. Such shareholders will also receive cash for fractions of shares.

COVID 19 has caused great unbalance in the supply and demand for oil and gas which in turn has resulted in oil companies world over cutting investments to protect own cash flow. This has in turn had a significant impact on the valuation of AKSO and Kvaerner. Because of i.a. the measures carried out by AKSO and Kvaerner to reduce costs, and the packages of measures adopted by the Norwegian authorities to maintain activity in the petroleum industry, the share prices have stabilized. AKSO and Kvaerner is therefore of the opinion that a volume-weighted average price per share during a period of 30 days provides a good basis to determine the exchange-ratio.

The Board of Directors of Kvaerner has commissioned a valuation report from Arctic Securities, which has served as the basis for the above mentioned valuation method. The valuation report supports that a volume weighted average price per share in the mentioned period will provide a correct picture of the value of the respective shares and thus provide the shareholders in Kvaerner a fair consideration. The valuation of AKSO and Kvaerner is based on a total assessment of expected future cash flow of the companies under different assumptions and scenarios, including a calibration against the valuation of similar companies which are traded on the stock exchange and a valuation of the companies’ historical stock exchange values. No special difficulties have been encountered in determining the consideration.

4. IMPLICATIONS FOR THE EMPLOYEES

Kvaerner has no employees. All workers are employed in underlying companies of the Kvaerner group. The Merger does not have any immediate consequences for these employees. Despite this, information has been furnished to, and discussions have been held with, the employee representatives and other union representatives in the Kvaerner group in connection with the Merger.

In accordance with the principle of continuity all of Kvaerner’s obligations towards the employees of the Kvaerner group are transferred to AKSO.
